

ply, complying 388, substitute offered for said, suggesting a joint committee on the subject of those bills 388-9, message adopted and sent to the senate 390, message proposing a joint committed on said bill received from the senate 423, reply assenting, proposed and assented to 424, sent to the senate 427.

Message, Asking the senate to return the bill for giving additional compensation to the Sheriff of Hartford co. for the purpose of reconsideration, proposed and assented to, 405, sent to the senate 407.

Accompanying the bill for opening Chatsworth street, as further amended, asking reconsideration, proposed and assented to 423, sent to the senate 427.

Inviting the attendance of the senate to hear council at the bar, on the case of the Memorialists for indemnity for injury sustained by the late mob in Baltimore 443, reply received 444.

To be returned with the bill relating to the alteration of the Constitution as relates to election districts of Cecil county, asking a reconsideration of the amendments, proposed 506-7, assented to 507, sent to the senate 511.

Asking a reconsideration of the amendments to the bill for divorcing Susan Foreman, &c. adopted 530, sent to the senate 540.

Proposing an adjournment sine die on the 29th March, proposed and * 568.

Asking a return of the bill for the protection of Oysters in the Little Choptank and Hudson rivers, in Dorchester county, received from the senate 577, reply assenting returned with the bill 577-8.

Asking a reconsideration of the amendments to the bill to incorporate the Baltimore and Peach Bottom Rail Road Company, received 582, reconsidered accordingly—amendment amended, and with the bill returned to the senate 583.

Asking the attention of the senate to sundry bills reported by the committee on the colored population, &c. proposed and assented to 592-3, sent to the senate 597, reply received 610.

Asking a reconsideration of their amendments to the bill divorcing Eliza Ann Boyd, from her husband James Boyd, proposed and assented to 593, sent to the senate 597.